The Georges Petitpas Award 2023

Dear Colleagues,

I hope you are keeping safe and well.

As you are aware, the Covid pandemic disrupted not only our World Congresses, but also the Georges Petitpas Award. I am pleased to announce we will resume the award in conjunction with our next World Congress hosted by our African Colleagues in Marrakech in 2023.

It is my responsibility as Immediate Past President to Chair the 'Georges Petitpas' award committee. This Committee is comprised of the Presidents of the Continental Federations of WFPMA. Because of the gap between the last award and the 2023 award I have asked our previous committee Chair, Jorge to remain on the committee to provide continuity.

This is the most important level of recognition awarded by WFPMA. It is aimed to highlight the most significant achievers in our profession globally, and it is presented to the selected recipient during our World Congress. In order to meet the schedule for the World Congress, please kindly proceed to coordinate the nomination of a candidate from your Continental Federation to be the recipient of the WFPMA Award 2023.

Please find attached the information and guidelines for the WFPMA Award, as well as the nomination form to be used for your submission. This should be completed with all the relevant information and sent to Chenai Kirkpatrick, WFPMA Secretariat with a copy to me by December 31st 2022 with any corresponding attachments, if needed

You may also see the full background, details of the Award, as well as prior recipients in WFPMA website : George Petitpas Award | WFPMA | World Federation of People Management Associations

The Award Committee will select the final candidate (or candidates) to be the recipient of the WFPMA Award. Once the selection has been made during we will present and discuss this for approval at the next appropriate WFPMA Board meeting in early 2023. The decision will be communicated to the recipient in time for her/him to be present in our next HR World Congress that will take place in Marrakech in 2023. In case of any comments or questions, please let me know.

Warmest regards,

Bob Morton
Immediate Past President
WFPMA
